

BLIND WOMAN IS VICTIM OF "DE LUXE" MEN

Not only did these books, but "antique furniture," "old" crockery and fake paintings and tapestry were used as bait by the agents who have victimised scores of English people during the last few years. It was revealed today.

The investigation developed the fact that Manchester, N. H., was a favorite of the agents. It became known that the Mary Alice Watts, a wealthy business woman of No. 517 Beach street, Manchester, and Mrs. Deanna B. Curtis, who were awarded $440,000 in a suit against the estate of Frank Jones, the millionaire, were victimised to the tune of $300,000.

The list of New England victims is said to include the names of thirteen women and eight men. The women are said to have lost over $400,000 or an average of $33,000 each, while the men are judged to be losers to the extent of $400,000, or an average of about $50,000 apiece.

The postoffice department is not counting its investigation to the de luxe boxes. An inquiry is being conducted throughout the country into the trade of these fraudulent articles.

Each new revelation tells some story of the shadiness of the agents and the cleverness with which they play upon the weaknesses of their dupes. Two crates of Wallington pale into insignificance by comparison.

It has become known that the de luxe boxes are being organized nationally and internationally. Just as mediums are said to keep a "blue book" with a list of names, these scoundrels keep a "red book" in which they have traded information and have bought and sold lists of rich people in different cities who might be expected to be deceived.

In some cases it is said these lists are obtained, besides the name of the potentate, the name of the person to whom he wishes to "approach" him or her. Something of the kind is evident from the

Send Lists Through Mails.

The postal investigation is said to have revealed a new ground for Federal action against the swindle, in the fact that these lists were often sent through the mails. The lists were commodities, bought and sold by one agent from another.

One of the big figures in the European mail-order knit syndicate is a woman, the ex-luxa swindler, who is known only as "The Countess." She is believed to have been a member of European nobility. She had under her sway a trained saleswoman whose part was to make up the lists for the syndicate, just as the handsome disturbed witnesses of the organization's activities with women customers.

Miss Mary Alice Watts of Manchester, N.H., told the Boston, Mass., bureau that she had been taken to the Hotel Bellevue under an assumed name, in an effort to escape the sensational publicity surrounding the developments of the book fraud story.

Mrs. DeLana Chris has gone to Europe, where she is working on the developments, it is reported, rather than face the charges of fraud.

She was a victim of the snare as were many other women.

The Suffolk County Grand Jury indicted three bookmen and held them for $25,000 bail.

The grand jury indicted were Walter V. Dunne, 30, of Boston; Frank T. Daniels and George M. Flinn, both of New York.

Frank's alias is Wilson and a man named Wilson was one of the gang alleged to have victimized Miss Wirta.

Floretta Vining Talks of Wives of Senate Candidates

Congressmen Weeks has no time to do anything for anybody, his wife is no club or patriotic woman. I just hope with all my heart he won't be Senator.

Draper is another, who never joined any patriotic order. Those two women are no misers and we don't want them.

Mr. Curtis, who he wishes to be Senator, did anyone ever see his wife? Many women in public life have had small children which prevented them from doing much for the country. I think Mrs. Curtis would like to see if she can't get a man for Senator who is an honor and a credit to the state, and a credit to the South.

The women of the State will stand a show in Washington if Mrs. Curtis goes. Is there. Success to such as they.

AUTO BANDITS AND GIRLS ARE CAUGHT

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Three youths, accompanied by two girls, were arrested today as members of the auto bandit gang that has been terrorizing the Hyde Park district for several weeks. Their arrest followed the probably fatal shooting of Charles W. Sherman, proprietor of a delicatessen shop, as he resisted the robbers of his store. Three other stores were raided by the bandits. Five squads of police on motorcycles pursued the bandits

More Truth Than Poetry

"It was a cough

The action of the Board of Health, in urging citizens to take precautions against the prevailing coughs and colds, brings to mind the old adage, "It was a cough that carried him off."

There is no better prescription for giving immediate relief to acute coughs and speedily breaking up the most severe colds than that of a famous throat specialist who always advises his patients to shake together two ounces of glycerine, eight ounces

Great Exclusive Features in Tomorrow's SUNDAY AMERICAN

Reproductions of Some of the Most Interesting Pages in Tomorrow's Sunday American

Dr. Charles W. Eliot, for So Many Years President of Harvard College, Says That in His Belief There Is No Such Place as Hell

Which has rather startled churchmen and laymen wherever his words have been printed, and has occasioned considerable discussion.

Dr. Charles W. Eliot, for so many years president of Harvard College, has opened up the greatest religious discussion of modern days.

The action of the Baptist Bible Society in eliminating the Whale from the story of Jonah, in cutting the dogology from the Lord's Prayer and in taking Eve from the Garden of Eden when Adam was forced out, has sunk into insignificance beside the declaration of President Eliot that in his belief THERE IS NO SUCH PLACE AS HELL.

His words have considerably shocked and startled churchmen and laymen wherever they have been printed.

Leading Boston preachers and distinguished churchmen have been interviewed concerning President Eliot's words, and the synopsis of their discussion will appear in tomorrow's Sunday AMERICAN.

It will undoubtedly be one of the most read stories printed in New England tomorrow.

The Case of the People Against Mellen and the New Haven

So much has been printed concerning President Mellen and the New Haven railroad that it is unnecessary to say much that is true has remained unsaid, that the Sunday AMERICAN has deemed it wise to present for your consideration tomorrow THE CASE OF THE PEOPLE AGAINST MELLEN AND THE NEW HAVEN.

Various charges of inefficiency, neglect, violation of this law and that law have been made.

Various branches of our judicial government have already begun the battle of threshing out the problem.

The AMERICAN's story tomorrow is the FIRST comprehensive story yet published on this subject.

Pretty Soon You'll Get Mince Pies and Eggs by Mail

There is no reason WHY we should pick out mince pies and eggs for the above—except for the fact, perhaps, that eggs are high just now and the mince pie season is with us.

However, after considering deeply religious subjects and transportation problems, it may be refreshing to read something in lighter vein.

The subject under discussion is the Parcel Post—which is in our midst and soon in operation RIGHT HERE IN BOSTON ON NEW YEAR'S DAY.

YOU will find Parcel Post a GREAT CONVENIENCE.

It is going to make your daily work lighter, will reduce the expense bills and will prove of great service.

Mr. T. E. POWERS is authority for the statement—the funny pictures—that we'll soon be sending cook stoves by mail. But it must be admitted that THIS is a LITTLE exaggeration.

Just what you can do when Parcel Post regulations come in will be explained in an article in tomorrow's Sunday AMERICAN.

Guaranteeing the Honesty of Bostonians

There was ONE Boston man who got into financial difficulties not so very long ago. Not that others haven't been in the same predicament.

Anyway, THIS Boston man was inclined to dishonesty, so he picked a grip with all the things and dollar bills he could find around the institution, and he was employed and STARTED for the train.

But he CAME BACK—The reason being that there are certain concerns known as Bonding Companies who pursue those who are inclined to dishonesty, and he didn't care to have them after him.

All of which leads up to the proposition that there are "THOUSANDS OF BOSTONIANS WHO ARE BONDED."

Even the conductors on the Elevated are bonded, and of course bankmen and people in counting rooms are bonded.

There's an interesting story about them in tomorrow's Sunday AMERICAN.

Did You Ever Know Why Bald Heads Sit in the Front Row?

A Boston physician has discovered that when a man gets bald-headed he sits often changes his habits. He says that even the most dignified are inclined to seek front row seats at the musical comedies when they lose their hair.

Of course this proposition doesn't hold good in EVERY case. Oh, no, indeed.

But it is a good story, nevertheless, and you will find it entertaining in Sunday's AMERICAN.

They're ALL Pretty Girls at Thompson's Spa

When Artist Brown gave a copy of his painting of "Sweet Adeline" to the Sunday AMERICAN, last Sunday, and casually replied when questioned that he drew his inspiration from one of the young ladies at Thompson's Spa he stirred up no end of mischief.

Of course it's nice to be called the prettiest girl in any group but when there are about 200 girls who immediately get ardent about it, there is a very trying diplomatic situation.

Artist Brown has NOW amended his remarks of a week ago by saying that ALL the girls of Thompson's Spa are pretty, and in tomorrow's Sunday AMERICAN he has much more to say and more pictures which are very interesting.

It seems he had FIVE young women in mind when he was painting his picture of "Sweet Adeline."

Portsmouth, New Hampshire, Is Much Stirred Up

Every once in a while SOMETHING happens at PORTSMOUTH, New Hampshire, that causes widespread discussion.

Just at present the citizens of that city are in the midst of a great crusade.

They have an election up there in a few days, and the air has been full of charges and countercharges.

The Sunday AMERICAN tomorrow will print the INSIDE STORY of Portsmouth's anti-vice crusade.

The story may serve to shed a little light on some very much debated subjects.

Let the Baby Burn!

But Save the Pictures!

Which would YOU save—your baby or the most famous painting in the world, if the house were afire and you had time to save but ONE?

Think it over.

Some of the greatest art authorities in the world declare the picture should be saved.

There is a most absorbingly interesting debate on the matter, illustrated in color by Artist Eddy in next Sunday's incomparable MAGAZINE SECTION.

On this page are reproduced in facsimile the head lines of some of the important exclusive features in the Magazine Section, but perhaps a mention of them here may be found interesting.

There is a page of NEW DISCOVERIES ALL OVER THE EARTH, which includes some interesting remarks about how musical instruments affect their players. Why people as well as rooms should be ventilated, the most important laws of heredity, how to make a healthy brain heavier, why you can no longer have a healthy brain, danger of flower fumes and just why thunder storms sour milk.

Gay Mrs. McKee's crushing punishment is discussed in a page article. It appears that the solemn declaration of a French Court that she is unfit to bring up her own child has broken the spirit of this lowliest of Colorado's daughters, and that she has ended her life of irresponsibility.

There is a story, illustrated of course, of a certain young woman who lost her dress but won her husband. She was a pretty woman, a teacher who had forewarned men and marriage to him, the mystery of the ancient cliff dwellers, but she met her fate while put in the wild and now is a wealthy matron.

There is another romance of a girl who dodged a desert throne. It's a moving picture story, a beautiful American in the Great Sahara.

Also there are two pages of almost unbelievable miracles of modern surgery.

And especially for the women there is a page of Lady Duff Gordon's latest styles and Mme. Cavalleri's beauty secrets.

But for further details we must refer you to Sunday's AMERICAN.
